Biography

Aspyn Maes is a Legal Case Manager in the firm's Business and Employment Department. She is based in the Albuquerque office.

Ms. Maes was born and raised in New Mexico. She attended the University of New Mexico for both her bachelor's and master's degrees in English Studies. Ms. Maes was involved in many on-campus groups including the Medieval Studies Student Association, the Graduate and Professional Student Association, and the women's fraternity, Chi Omega. She hopes to continue her education in English studies and plans on applying to Ph.D. programs in the future.

Ms. Maes met and worked with several international students during her time at UNM. During the pandemic especially, she was made aware of the hardships and resilience that immigrants have when applying for and maintaining status. Ms. Maes hopes to make the immigration process as easy and efficient as possible for the firm's clients.

More About Aspyn Maes

When Aspyn is not in the office, she enjoys reading fantasy novels, snowboarding, and walking her two dogs, Hank and Cannoli!
