Biography

Emilia Parrill is a Senior Legal Assistant in the Albuquerque office of Vrapí Weeks. Ms. Parrill handles family, humanitarian, and business immigration cases. She is fluent in Spanish and also speaks conversational Hakka, a Chinese dialect.

Ms. Parrill was born in Panama to Chinese immigrants. At a young age, Ms. Parrill's family had the opportunity to move to the United States. Having gone through the immigration process herself, Ms. Parrill feels passionate about her work with our clients because she understands the fears and struggles they face daily. Ms. Parrill has worked with nationally-rated immigration law firms, and she has many years of immigration experience. She has been working in immigration law since 2012 and joined our team at Noble Vrapí in 2018. Ms. Parrill has been a Notary Public in the State of New Mexico since 2012.

Ms. Parrill's immigrant background and years of experience in the immigration field have allowed her to understand and passionately work with our growing immigrant community. She enjoys working closely with clients to help make the process as easy and understandable as possible.
