Biography

Jessica Ogaldez is a Senior Legal Assistant in our Albuquerque, New Mexico, office. She handles family and humanitarian immigration cases. She is fluent in Spanish.

Ms. Ogaldez has nearly 9 years in the legal field, and she has worked in the immigration law field for many years. In 2014, she received her associate's degree in Paralegal Studies.

Ms. Ogaldez was born in Muleshoe, Texas, and raised in Albuquerque, NM. Her parents migrated to the United States in the 1990s from Chihuahua, Mexico. Her biggest accomplishment in the immigration legal field was helping her parents to become U.S. Citizens, and she has dedicated her career to helping others to overcome immigration barriers and keep families together. She is proud to work in a firm where every attorney goes above and beyond for each client, and where the entire firm works together closely as a team to achieve the best possible outcome.
